

The Cross Busters!!

"And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six." (Revelation 13:16-18).

Observations upon the rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand or in their foreheads, and that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the Beast, or the number of his name; that is, the mark †, or the name ΛΑΤΕΙΝΟC, or the number thereof ϛϛ, 666. All others were excommunicated.

This is a brief commentary on the Mark of the Beast from Revelation chapter 13 written by Sir Isaac Newton during his lifetime and published after his death. It is found on pages 284 and 320 of his magnum opus. The book was first published in London in 1733.

"After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD said to Joshua son of Nun, Moses' aide: Moses my servant is dead. Now then, you and all these people, get ready to CROSS the Jordan River into the land I am about to give to them—to the Israelites" (Joshua 1:1-2). (New International Version of the Bible).

The CROSS was introduced to the Christian Congregation by Pope Constantine in order to unite paganism and Christianity.

Crosses are the world's oldest good luck charms, talismans, or amulets and are found in every continent of the world.

This demonic object (CRUX in Latin) entered the vocabulary of most European languages through the corrupt Latin Vulgate version of Jerome.

In this sign, conquer!!

A HOLY Bible and HOLY Scriptures once again with the CROSS removed!!

Jesus came to fulfill the Old Testament. There are NO SUCH words as CROSS, CRUCIFY, or CRUCIFIED in the Old Testament—except in the new perversions!!

"Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a TREE (Gk. xulon)" (Acts 5:29-30).

The cross is a symbol for the great mother goddess!!

Crosses are the world's oldest good luck charms, talismans, or amulets and are found in every continent of the world. They represent the worship of the great mother goddess of paganism. They originated at Babylon and spread to all the world via Egypt.

The Egyptian ankh or cross is found everywhere in ancient Egypt.

The terra-cotta head of a cow from Crete (circa 1600 B.C.), lacks a nose and a mouth, but its face, ears, and horns are covered with symbols of the great mother goddess in a manner similar to that of the Egyptian cows.

Hathor was also known as Hathor, the Egyptian cow goddess, holding the ankh or cross.

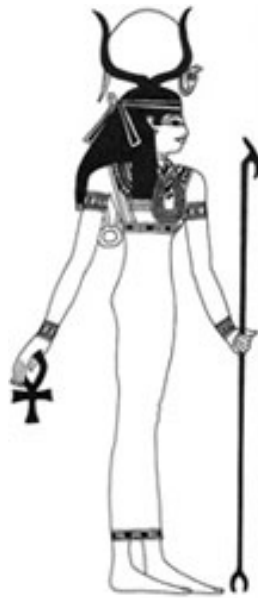

Isis. Her name in Asia-Minor and Greece was Cybele or Diana of the Ephesians, and her name in Rome was Venus.

Cow's head from Crete adorned with crosses.

Hathor with serpent on her forehead and holding a cross in her right hand.

The serpent and the cross were ubiquitous in ancient Egypt.

The Egyptian ankh or cross is found EVERYWHERE in ancient Egypt.

The Incas kept a ✠ in a sacred place

The Incas were SUN worshippers and their BIG day was the winter solstice which occurred about June 22 in the Southern hemisphere. This was the opposite of the winter solstice or "Christ-mas" in the Northern hemisphere. Crosses were a very, very important part of this demonic sun worship. Here is a quote from that great Inca writer, Garcilasco de la Vega, El Inca:

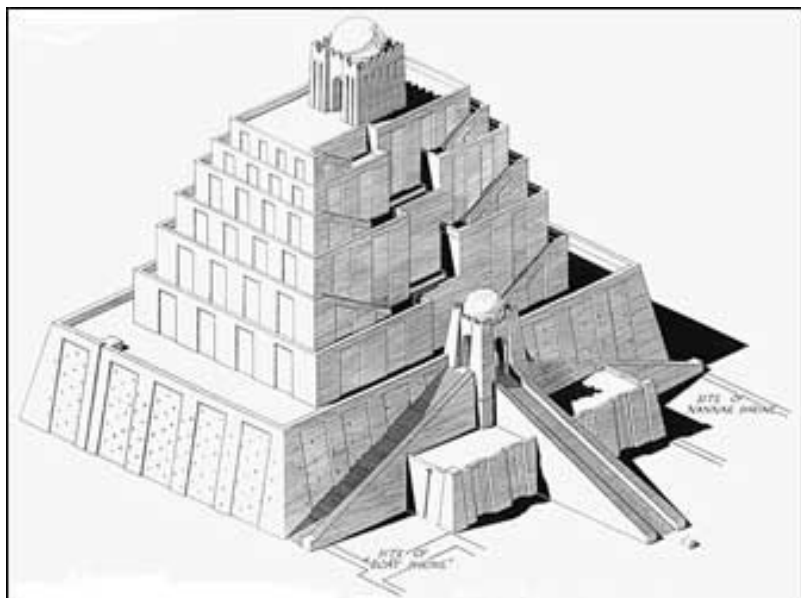

"The Inca kings had in Cuzco a cross of fine marble, of the white and red color called crystalline jasper. They cannot say how long they have had it. When I left in 1560 it was in the sacristy of the cathedral church of that city, where it hung from a nail by a cord running through a hole in the top of the cross. I remember that the cord was a strip of black velvet.

Maybe in Indian times it had a holder of silver or gold, and whoever found it exchanged it for this strip of silk. The cross was square, as broad as it was high, and would be perhaps three quarters of a vara or a little less in size, each arm being about three fingers in width and the same in thickness. It was all in one piece, very well carved, with its edges perfectly smooth, both sides exactly matched, and the stone polished to a high luster. They used to have it in one of their royal houses, in one of the chambers called huaca, "a sacred place." They did not worship it, though they held it in reverence, possibly because of its handsome appearance or for some other reason they could not express. It was so preserved till the marquis Don Francisco Pizarro entered the valley of Tumbes, and because of what occurred to Pedro de Candia there they worshipped it and held it in greater veneration, as we shall mention hereafter" (Garcilaso de la Vega, Royal Commentaries of the Incas, vol. 1, p. 73).

The origin of the cross

The prophet Ezekiel described a meeting of the apostate women of Israel who had set up a cross in the Temple of the Lord and were worshipping a false "messiah" named Tammuz. The cross came from the first letter of the name of this false Babylonian "messiah."

"He (JEHOVAH) said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do. Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz" (Ezekiel 8:13-14).

The Tower of Babel was an astronomical observatory.

At the Tower of Babel, Satan created a universal false religion based on the worship of the MOTHER of god as a SUBSTITUTE for the worship of the SON of God or JEHOVAH.

Satan used NIMROD and his queen Semiramis to introduce this false religion to the world.

According to the Jewish historian Josephus, Nimrod was punished for his rebellion by Shem, one of the sons of Noah. He cut Nimrod's body into many pieces and sent it to the surrounding people as a warning against idolatry.

After his death, his wife had a baby and she claimed that he had been miraculously conceived and that Nimrod was reborn in the person of her son. She called this son Tammuz.

Semiramis became the mother goddess or queen of heaven and statues of her holding her "divine" son began to appear everywhere. The cross came from the first letter of the name of this false messiah Tammuz. At the time of Moses and the Exodus, Egypt was the most powerful nation in the world and the headquarters of this Babylonian false religion.

The unholy trinity: Nimrod, Semiramis, Tammuz.

The cross came from the first letter of the name of the false Babylonian "messiah" named Tammuz!!

Nimrod (circa 2260 B.C.), was the builder of the Tower of Babel.

Tammuz was the name of the false "messiah" of Babylon. After Constantine, Jesus began to appear in images with long hair like Tammuz.

Queen Semiramis was the wife of Nimrod.

Astrology, horoscopes, sun worship, and human sacrifices all began with Nimrod and his wife Semiramis. He was the original apostate after the Great Flood.

Emperor Constantine's "Christianity" came from EGYPT!!

Since the time of Moses and the Exodus (1500 B.C.), Egypt was SATAN'S territory and a type of the devil controlled world system. God's Congregation were FORBIDDEN to go down there for any reason . . . even to buy HORSES:

"But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way" (Deut. 17:16).

In a fit of rage and jealousy, Constantine murdered his own son, Crispus. Then he murdered his wife, Fausta. To assuage a guilty conscience, he turned to the pagan priests . . . and found no help there. Then he turned to an unnamed EGYPTIAN who introduced him to "Christianity." Here is a quote from an ancient Greek historian named Zosimus:

"Constantine's mother, Helena, was saddened by this atrocity and was inconsolable at the young man's death, Constantine as if to comfort her, applied a remedy worse than the disease: he ordered a bath to be overheated, and shut Fausta up in it until she was dead. Since he was himself aware of his guilt and of his disregard for oaths as well, he approached the priests seeking absolution, but they said that there was no kind of purge known which could absolve him of such impieties. A certain EGYPTIAN, who had come from Spain to Rome and was intimate with the ladies of the court, met Constantine and assured him that the Christian religion was able to absolve him from guilt and that it promised every wicked man who was converted to it immediate release from all sin. Constantine readily believed what he was told and, abandoning his ancestral religion, embraced the one which the EGYPTIAN offered him. He began his impiety by doubting divination; for since many of its predictions about his successes had been fulfilled, he was afraid that people enquiring about the future might hear prophecies about his misfortunes. For this reason he applied himself to the abolition of divination. When an ancient festival fell due and it was necessary for the army to go up to the Capitol to carry out the rites, for fear of the soldiers he took part in the festival, but when the EGYPTIAN sent him an apparition which unrestrainedly abused the rite of ascending to the Capitol, he stood aloof from the holy worship and thus incurred the hatred of the senate and people" (Zosimus, New History, Book II, p. 29).

Unlike Eusebius of Caesarea, this pagan historian was not as concerned about having ALL his writings destroyed so he told the PLAIN TRUTH about Constantine and his so-called conversion to "Christianity." He did not have to CONCEAL his writings and speak in riddles and parables about the REAL "conversion" of Constantine.

Constantine caused the Fall of the Roman Empire!!

This same pagan historian also blamed Constantine (not true Christianity) for the Fall of the Roman Empire. Anti-Christian historians say that the Christians were the cause of the Fall of the Empire because they refused to serve in the Roman army. The FIRST non-Jewish person to become a Christian was an Italian SOLDIER in the Roman army named Cornelius (Acts ch. 10):

" And Constantine did something else which gave the barbarians unhindered access to the Roman empire. By the forethought of Diocletian, the frontiers of the empire everywhere were covered, as I have stated, with cities, garrisons and fortifications which housed the whole army. Consequently it was impossible for the barbarians to cross the frontier because they were confronted at every point by forces capable of resisting their attacks. Constantine destroyed this security by removing most of the troops from the frontiers and stationing them in cities which did not need assistance, thus both stripping of protection those being molested by the barbarians and subjecting the cities left alone by them to the outrages of the soldiers, so that henceforth most have become deserted. Moreover, he enervated the troops by allowing them to devote themselves to shows and luxuries. In plain terms, Constantine was the origin and beginning of the present destruction of the empire" (Zosimus, New History, Book II, p. 33).

Constantine's vision of the CROSS was a lying SIGN and wonder!!

Emperor Constantine related his "vision" of the CROSS IN THE SKY to the Christian historian Eusebius, ! 3 years after the famous battle of Milvian Bridge. Obviously the opposing army of Emperor Maxentius did not see this CROSS IN THE SKY vision as they would have put this good luck charm on their shields and evened the odds. Eusebius was not about to argue with Constantine and call him a LIAR as he would soon have lost his head and ALL HIS WRITINGS would have been destroyed in typical Papal Roman fashion.

Only Constantine and his soldiers saw the VISION IN THE SKY.

Here is a quote from the Christian historian Eusebius:

"Accordingly he (Constantine) called on him with earnest prayer and supplications that he would reveal to him who he was, and stretch forth his right hand to help him in his present difficulties. And while he was thus praying with fervent entreaty, a most marvelous sign appeared to him from heaven, the account of which it might have been hard to believe had it been related by any other person. But since the victorious emperor himself long afterwards declared it to the writer of this history, when he was honored with his acquaintance and society, and confirmed his statement by an oath, who could hesitate to accredit the relation, especially since the testimony of after-time has established its truth? He said that about noon, when the day was already beginning to decline, he saw with his own eyes the trophy of a cross of light in the heavens, above the sun, and bearing the inscription, CONQUER BY THIS. At this sight he himself was struck with amazement, and his whole army also, which followed him on this expedition, and witnessed the miracle." (Eusebius, Life of Constantine, p. 490).

The Lord Jesus Christ warned his Congregation about lying SIGNS and wonders:

"For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great SIGNS and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect" (Matthew 24:4).

St. Paul warned the Christian Congregation about the same lying SIGNS and wonders that would precede the end of the world:

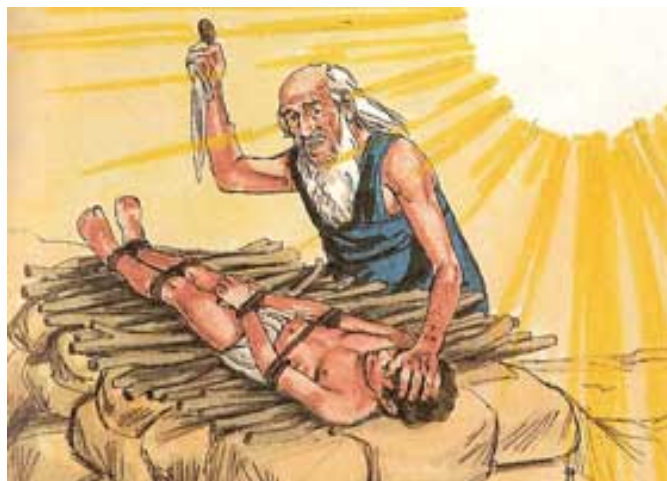

"Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and SIGNS and lying wonders" (2 Thess. 2:9).

The offering of Isaac by father Abraham is Calvary acted out in history!!

Calvary acted out in history 2000 years before the event. Notice Isaac (a perfect type of Christ) is carrying the WOOD for the fire while Abraham (a perfect type of God the Father) is carrying the knife and the fire.

Isaac carrying the WOOD on his way to Mount Moriah to be sacrificed by father Abraham is a perfect type of Christ carrying the wood to Calvary.

At the last moment, God calls out to Abraham and tells him not to slay his son because JEHOVAH HIMSELF will be the sacrifice.

The symbol of the death of Jesus is the 7 branched candlestick or candelabrum

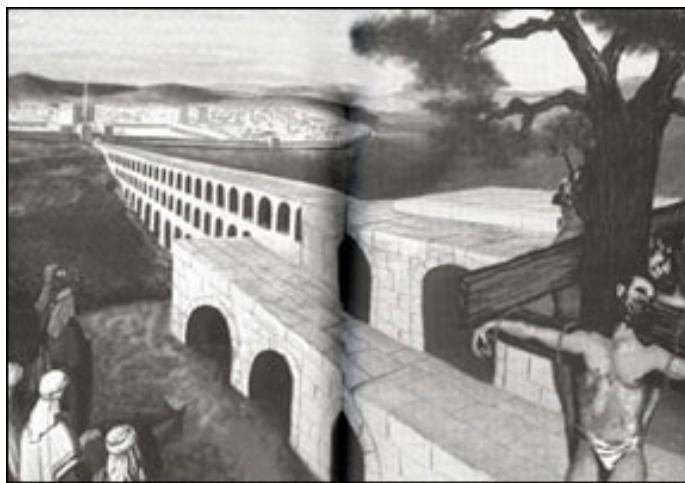

7 branched golden candlestick.

Jesus the Messiah was nailed to a BIG olive tree on the Mount of Olives overlooking Jerusalem.

On the same tree were nailed 2 other men: one on the right and the other on the left. This manner of the death of the Messiah was beautifully illustrated by the MENORAH which JEHOVAH carefully instructed Moses to make:

"And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, shall be of the same. And six branches shall come out of the sides of it; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side" (Exodus 25:31-32).

3 men nailed to one tree

Panoramic view of the death of Christ. Jesus was nailed to a living tree facing His Father's House—the Holy Temple in Jerusalem. On the same tree were also nailed 2 thieves or criminals.

3 men with their hands extended upwards on one tree is a perfect type of the 7 branched golden candlestick.

The Romans used living trees to impale victims and no preparation was necessary such as digging holes in the ground.

Mount of Olives overlooking Jerusalem was the site of the death and Resurrection of Christ.

Jesus came to fulfill the Old Testament. There are NO SUCH words as CROSS, CRUCIFY, or CRUCIFIED in the Old Testament—except in the new perversions!!

The New Testament was written in Greek and the 2 words used to describe the death of Jesus are STAUROS and XULON. They both mean a TREE or a part of a TREE such as WOOD, TIMBER, PLANK or BOARD.

A CROSS is NOT a TREE!!

Cross shaped electricity poles.

A CROSS is not a TREE and will never become a TREE. One of the most common examples of Roman cross shaped objects are the wooden poles used to carry electricity. They are comprised of 2 pieces of dead wood nailed together.

These poles will NEVER turn into trees with roots and leaves no matter how long they are left in the ground.

5 Scriptures that say distinctly that Jesus was nailed to a TREE

"The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a TREE (xulon)" (Acts 5:30).

"And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a TREE (xulon)" (Acts 10:39).

"And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the TREE (xulon), and laid him in a sepulchre" (Acts 13:30).

"Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a TREE (xulon)" (Galatians 3:13). (Deut. 21:23).

"Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the TREE (xulon), that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed "(I St. Peter 2:24).

St. Paul says distinctly that Christ died for our sins "according to the Scriptures" (I Cor. 15:3). The ONLY Scriptures available to St. Paul were the Old Testament. The Old Testament mentions stoning and hanging on a TREE as the ONLY methods of capital punishment.

The Roman eagle was replaced by the CROSS!!

Jesus gave unmistakable signs of the destruction of Jerusalem and the end of the world. The sign heralding the destruction of Jerusalem was the surrounding of the city by the legions of Rome. Beginning in 66 A.D., imperial Rome surrounded that city with her eagles.

"When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)"(Matthew 24:15).

"For wheresoever the carcass is, there will the EAGLES be gathered together" (Matthew 24:28).By 70 A.D., the Temple was completely destroyed and not one stone was left upon another.

Beginning with Pope Constantine, papal Rome laid siege to the spiritual Temple, the Israel of God, the Congregation of Christ, and the war continues to this very day.

Imperial Rome became PAPAL Rome on Oct. 28, 312 A.D., when Constantine exchanged the eagle for the cross.

As the eagle was the battle standard of imperial Rome, so the CROSS is the battle standard of papal Rome. It is the Mark of the BEAST

The Roman eagle always stayed on top of their banners until 312 A.D.

without a doubt!!
